

Plate No. I.

A. Front view of Copper Anthropomorphic figure

B. Back view of Copper Anthropomorphic figure

Conveniently not noted in this comparison: the photo of the Indus seal or seal impression on the right is less than 1/10th the size of the hybrid/apparent fake post-Indus object on the left.

The materials are also radically unlike anything from Indus times.

Plate No. II

A. Close view of Anthropomorphic figure
(Brahmi script with unicorn)

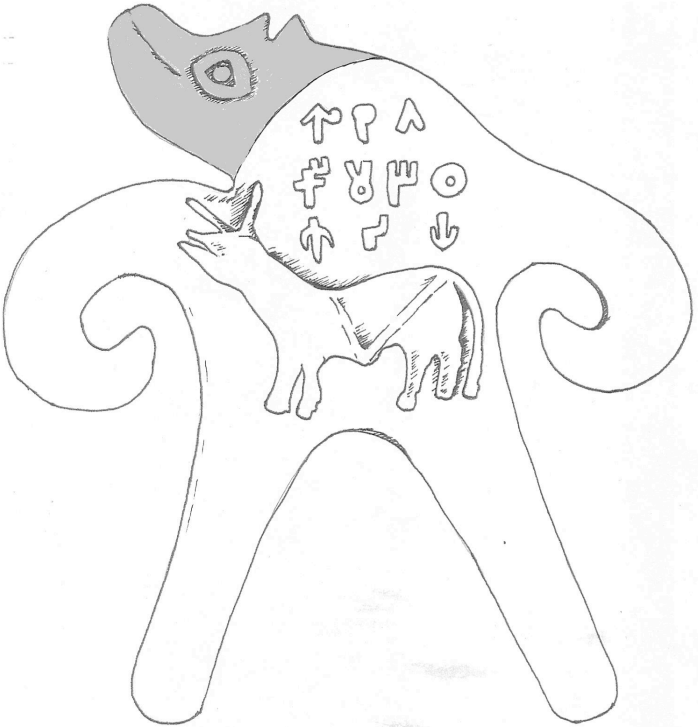

B. Soapstone seal with Indus script and unicorn

Figure . I

A. Composite Anthropomorphic figure
(Boar and human)
